WILLIAM GALPYN, VICAR OF RADFORD

Presentation of William Galpyn, Chaplain to the Vicarage of Radford in the Diocese of York in the King's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien Priory of Lenton being in his hands on account of the war with France.—Calendar of Patent Rolls.

Note.—Large landed donations to foreign (French) religious houses were made a very short time after the Conquest and created great discontent in England. They were managed by a system established in England of subordinate houses or "alien priories" under command of the chief house abroad, and, after frequent seizure into the hands of the crown, when war was declared between the two countries they were finally suppressed.—(W. de Gray Birch, F.S.A.).
